This one day course is intended to give the student the skills and knowledge necessary to successfully engage and hit targets out to the maximum effective range of their weapons. It will expose the student to three elements of long range shooting; cartridge ballistics, functionality of the rifle and optics, and the skills needed to make that single, critical, first shot at distance. In addition to slow fire precision shooting, the student will be introduced to dynamic engagements at unknown and varying ranges. Minimum engagement distances will be at 50 yards, and extend out to 200 yards.

Note: We do not break for lunch, however, there are natural breaks during the day to eat and hydrate.

Skills covered will include, but are not limited to:

- Basic functions and safety
- Equipment selection
- External ballistics
- Natural point of aim
- Basic marksmanship skills
- Positional shooting (prone, sitting, kneeling, standing)
- Range estimation
- Precision vs dynamic shooting

Required equipment:

- Carbine/rifle capable of accurate hits out to 200 yards (1.5 moa)
- Extra magazines (if appropriate)
- 300 rounds of ammunition
- Eye and ear protection

Recommended additional equipment:

- Magnified/optical sight
- Bipod/sand bag
- Spotting scope
- Hat or head covering
- Note taking materials (pen and paper)
- Personal water supply
- Snacks/bag lunch
- Knee and elbow pads/shooting mat

Prerequisite:

None.
